Case Name: Arizona Republican Party

NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT

This matter was initiated by the Federal Election Commission (Commission) pursuant to information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities. Following review of the matter, and in an effort to promote compliance with the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, (FECA) and resolve this matter, the Commission entered into negotiations with Kory Langhofer, Esq., representing the Arizona Republican Party and Bob Lettieri, in his official capacity as Treasurer (the Committee or Respondents). It is understood that this agreement will have no precedential value relative to any other matters coming before the Commission.

Negotiations between the Commission and Respondents addressed the issues raised in this referral. The parties agree to resolve the matter according to the following terms:

1. The Commission entered into this agreement as part of its responsibility for administering the FECA, and in an effort to promote compliance on the part of Respondents. The Commission's use of alternative dispute resolution procedures (ADR) is guided by "The Administrative Dispute Resolution Act of 1996," 5 U.S.C. § 572 and is an extension of 52 U.S.C. § 30109.
2. Respondents voluntarily enter into this agreement with the Commission.
3. The Reports Analysis Division (RAD) referred Respondents for a series of reporting errors and other FECA violations during the 2015-2016 election cycle. A political committee may be referred if, after an internal review of reports filed by the committee, the Commission determines the reports do not meet the threshold requirements for substantial compliance with the FECA. The Committee's reporting errors included, among other items: excessive, prohibited, and other impermissible contributions or transfers; mathematical discrepancies, failure to provide supporting schedules, failure to properly itemize disbursements, Federal Election Activity/Levin Funds, and allocated federal and non-federal activity.
4. A political committee may be referred if, after an internal review of reports filed by the committee, the Commission determines the reports do not meet the threshold requirements for substantial compliance with the FECA. 52 U.S.C. § 30109.
5. Respondents contend that there were reporting challenges during the 2016 election cycle. Specifically, Respondents indicate that since these reporting errors occurred, leadership changed. The Committee's new leadership contends they are committed to timely and accurate reporting under the FECA and have implemented new compliance procedures and obtained the advice of legal counsel familiar with campaign finance reporting.

6. Respondents, in an effort to avoid similar errors in the future, agree to: (a) amend relevant 2015-2016 reports to address any inadequate responses and nonresponses to requests for additional information from RAD within sixty (60) days of the effective date of this agreement; (b) certify that two representatives of the Committee participated in an FEC conference, webinar, or other program developed in consultation with the FEC's Information Division within twelve (12) months of the effective date of this agreement; and (c) pay a civil penalty of $23,000 on the following schedule:
  - a. $5,000 due on or before February 28, 2018,
  - b. an additional $5,000 due on or before March 31, 2018,
  - c. an additional $5,000 due on or before April 30, 2018,
  - d. an additional $5,000 due on or before May 31, 2018,
  - e. a final payment of $3,000 due on or before June 30, 2018.
7. Respondents agree that all information provided to resolve this matter is true and accurate to the best of their knowledge and that they sign this agreement under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746.
8. The parties agree that if Respondents fail to comply with the terms of this settlement, the Commission may submit any unpaid civil penalty to the U.S. Treasury for collection or undertake civil action in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia to secure compliance.
9. This agreement shall become effective on the date signed by all parties and approved by the Commission. Respondents shall comply with the terms of this agreement as set out in paragraph 6 above, and shall certify compliance with the above settlement terms in writing to the Alternative Dispute Resolution Office on or before the date each term becomes due.
10. This Negotiated Settlement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties on ADR 842 (RAD 17L-34), and resolves those issues identified in paragraph 3 above. No other statement, promise or agreement, either written or oral, made by either party, not included herein, shall be enforceable.
